Aiguille Fort 1

18/05 - 08/06

Project : Near the Charente River, the Fouras peninsula has 3 ports and 5 beaches on the Atlantic coast. The town of Fouras-les-Bains and Maison des Bateleurs - Solidarités Jeunesses wished to renew their partnership in order to continue the rehabilitation work on Aiguille Fort (known as the largest in France). In an idyllic setting with a view of Boyard Fort, work will consist of rehabilitating the redoubt (a fortification system built by Vauban) to protect Fouras from a possible invasion.

Work : It's a continuation of the work undertaken last year by volunteers. You'll work on the restoration of a new part of the redoubt main facade in three steps. You'll help the technical leader to remove plants from the facade and replace the chalk mortar joints between the stones. Other traditional masonry works are planned, such as redoing the stone coping (wall's top layer) and stone cutting.

Accommodation and food : Collective, tent at the Fouras campsite (pool, multi-sports area, WIFI, snack...). Food provided, meals prepared by you.

Location : Fouras-les-Bains, Charente-Maritime

Leisure activities : You'll be able to experience some water activities, like fishing or sailing. During your free time, you'll have the opportunity to interact with locals, already excited about meeting you. Finally, you'll have time to discover the beach, go on bike rides along the ocean, play beach-volleyball, and participate in many other activities. A sustainable wall (1/2)

22/05 - 05/06

Project : Come and discover one of the small perched towns in the South of France, Serres in the Alpes, which offers a magnificent panorama of the medium mountain range of the Baronnies Provençales! The town, leaning against the Pignolette rock, is made up of small shady medieval streets and covered and sloping passages in which it is good to stroll. At the top of this village and at the bend in the monks' path, is the chapel of Notre Dame de Bon Secours, which overlooks the Buëch valley. This building was erected in 1730 and blessed in 1732. Partly dug into the rock, it marries the hillside, on the presumed site of the former chapel of the castle of Serres. The Baronnies Provençales Regional Nature Park, in partnership with the association Les Villages des Jeunes and a hiking organization, launched an operation to raise awareness and promote the dry-stone building technique in 2018. Elected officials and inhabitants will be mobilized for this operation through restoration actions and discoveries of the dry-stone built heritage (conference, visit).

Work : The path of the Monks meanders along the hillside below the chapel; it is supported by dry stone retaining walls and has a stone-covered walkway, known as a calade in south-eastern France. One of the retaining walls of the path, located under the chapel, is partly deteriorated due to lack of maintenance. You will participate in the restoration of this wall which is essential to put the chapel back in its place in the landscape by redrawing the flatness of the wall leading to it. The following work will be undertaken: dismantling and sorting of the stones, earthworks and reconstruction of the wall according to the very precise technique of dry stone construction (theoretical and practical input). You can also discover the technique of restoration of the dry stone path: punctual recovery of the damaged parts of the path, realization of stone steps.

The workcamp will be supervised by a professional in dry stone construction techniques. A daily work of 6 hours is planned, the organization of the days will be discussed and decided by the group of participants. The pedagogical objective is to discover a traditional construction technique which does not require any material, except stones from the stoning of fields intended for agriculture or recovered from old buildings. Theoretical, historical and practical contributions will be disseminated. It should be noted that this workcamp is part of a more global action to enhance the site of the chapel. The population of the village is invited to take part in the work of clearing the brush and creating a calade on the chapel square.

The old Rosans path and its treasures

23/07 - 07/08

Project: How would you like to revive the old cobbled road of a small historic village? Rosans is a very beautiful site to appreciate the stone streets of a village nestled between the Alps and Provence! Open your eyes wide to the flora and fauna, take a deep breath, the air here is as pure as the sky!

On the outskirts of the village, the inhabitants have created a dense network of paths and canals irrigating the gardens and meadows. The work involves a set of dry stone walls located on the edge of a communal road near the village. This path, which corresponds to the old Nyons path and now connects the village to the site of the Rosans lake, is very popular in the summer. The path of about 2 km, is quite shaded and very pleasant; it offers a panoramic view over the valley with the Clavelière and Vanige mountains in the south, as well as Mont Risou in the east, in the background.

The two previous years, the municipality hosted an international youth workcamp over 2 weeks as well as a few participatory workcamps lasting 2 to 3 days. The participants discovered the technique of dry stone masonry through the creation of a calade and the restoration of the breaches in the retaining wall of the path.

Work: In 2021 we will continue to build the calade over the entire width of the path in order to level the slope and thus avoid any stagnation of the water. The part installed to collect the flow from the source will also be enlarged in order to better direct the flow during heavy rain events. The retaining walls on the linear will also be repeated along the path to the right of the breaches and collapses of the wall. It is with a skilled heritage workcamp leader who is passionate about dry stone masonry that we will be able to discover this restoration technique and the hidden treasures of Rosans' heritage.

Accommodation and food: We will be accommodated in tents at the Paul Bert holiday village and will have access to all the centre's facilities. A facilitating team will be present to accompany the participants in the organisation of collective life during the two weeks of the camp : planning housekeeping tasks, developing menus and preparing meals alternately, organizing recreational activities and outings. The purchase of local products will be prioritized, and everyone will come with their own ideas, talents, and tips and tricks to help prepare the meals.

Location: Rosans is a village in the south of France, nestled between the Alps and the Haute Provence (23 km to the west of Serres, 40km to the east of Nyons). The village is home to various shops, and festivities are usually organised during the summer period.

Leisure activities: The land of sunshine and amazing flavors, the provençale Baronnies massif is a good living personified where we can enjoy outdoor activities in the heart of nature while also just lounging around ! Not far from Rosans, we will be able to explore numerous sites : the Saint André de Rosans priory, Saint-Genis mountain, Clavelière mountain, the village of Rosans, the geological curiosity « dinosaur eggs » etc. The Saint May canyons, located closeby, house an important colony of vultures (wild vultures, black vultures, bearded vultures, egyptian vultures) that one can observe easily while hiking a trail that offers spectacular panoramic views of the canyon and the massifs of Baronnies. To refresh ourselves, the lake of Rosans is only a ten minute walk away from the village and is a great escape for those looking to relax.

Historical wandering in Clausonne Abbey 2

24/07- 7/08

Project: Participate in the valorisation of a historic site at the heart of idyllic mountain landscapes ! Join us and come discover l'Abbaye de Clausonne and its natural environment at 1140 meters of altitude!

It is in the XII century that the Abbaye sees the day. After multiple periods of deconstruction and of reconstruction over the centuries, in the 20th century, it became an agricultural building, which was abandoned in the 1950s. It is in 1994 that the association of friends of Abbaye of Clausonne was created to conserve the vestiges of this exceptional architecture, on an exceptional site. Since then, the association wanted to make this place a place of discovery, learning and knowledge.

Work: Do you want to learn ancient techniques of masonry, the use of ancient material and ecology? This year, we will work to continue the masonry in stone, on the ancient sheep herding, in order to make it, in a few years, a room for cooking, storing tools, etc. We will continue as well to work on putting value in the site and hiking trails. And if the time allows, we will participate in the construction of stone stairs in the sheepfold with the help of masons that will be there to transmit their knowledge! The work represents 30h in a week. The nights and weekends are free for activities that we will choose to organise together.

Accommodation and food: We will be accommodated in tents on the Clausonne site in order to take full advantage of the magical natural environment offered by the site in summer. On the logistics side, a kitchen and dining room tent will be set up for shelter in the event of rain. On the sanitary side, the site has very functional dry toilets and on the shower side, we will have to rely on the pretty river Maraize which flows below. We will also be able to meet the volunteers and residents of our reception center, the Ferme du Fai, located a 20-minute walk away. There is no WIFI on site and the phone has difficulty picking up, you have to move a few meters away!

We will cook in a rotation of roles, so that we can taste several specialties! Here, we pay attention to what we eat, to reduce our impact on the planet we try to eat a maximum of local products and we eat meat two times a week.

Location: The Clausonne Abbey, at 4km of the village of Saix is 15 km from the first town, Veynes. Once or twice a week, we will organize a trip to the nearest town to go shopping.

Leisure activities: We will be in an exceptional setting to discover the pleasures of mountain hiking, its rivers, its lakes, the farmers and producers markets, the festive nights organised in surrounding villages. In group, we will decide activities and discovery outings that we wish to set up. The reception center usually organizes one musical evening per week with homemade wood-fired pizzas.

Mountain Holiday Chalets for all 2

28/07 -17/08

Project: Participate in the reconstruction of old chalets, to offer vacations to all, does that mean anything to you?

Join us and come discover the Hameau de Vaunières and its natural setting at 1173 meters above sea level ! Vaunières, a hamlet unlike any other ! Lost at the end of the Buëch valley, at the heart of the Hautes Alpes, the association Les Villages des Jeunes has managed, organised, and renovated the residential center of Vaunières since 1964 ! Vaunières was a former small mountain village that today has become a sort of launching pad for local youth and adults, but it's also a venue used to host French and international volunteers. Vaunières is a vacation destination for many families, tourists, and constituent groups who come to take advantage of the calm mountain atmosphere and the dynamics of the environment. The workcamps that we organise at Vaunières with volunteers from all countries allow us to reinforce the cultural diversity of our engagement and make this site a place that is open to the world, where people of all ages and of all social and cultural backgrounds agree to meet each other and work together while participating in life within a community. We hope that you too, a volunteer from France or abroad, will come with this spirit of openness and collaboration that fuels our project !

Work: Since 2019, we have been working on the renovation of abandoned chalets for over 20 years. We have changed the roofs and frames and we still have to carry out the interior fittings. With the help of the technical leader, we will work on removing the old floors, then we will install the water and electricity networks before laying the insulation and finally the floor. Ideal for those who want to learn about carpentry!

Accommodation and food: Housing will be in individual tents, that we furnish and provide mattresses for, on the campgrounds of the hamlet of Vaunières. The campgrounds have access to showers, restrooms, and the kitchen. There's no WIFI, but you'll be able to meet people from all over the world ! We'll take turns cooking, that way we'll be able to taste a number of different specialties ! Here, we pay attention to what we eat, and to reduce our impact on the planet, we try to eat a maximum of local products and we limit eating meat to twice a week. Community life will be organised together : organization of menus, grocery shopping, activities, etc.

Location: Le Hameau de Vaunières, 6km from the village St Julien en Beauchêne, is 23km away from the main city, Veynes. Grocery shopping, which will be conducted once or twice a week, will be organised using our vehicles.

Leisure activities: We will be in an exceptional location to discover the joys of hiking among the mountains, its rivers, its lakes, the farmers markets, and festive events organized in the surrounding villages (depending on programming). The Pinson Mound Redoubt

31/07- 20/08

Project: The Pinson Mound Redoubt is a military fortification dating from the late 19th century which used to protect the city of Paris. It was stocked with armaments and supplies such as gunpowder, alongside many artillery pieces. Nowadays, the towns surrounding the fort are working together to give a new life to the site. The redoubt will become a place for meeting up, leisurely strolls, cultural and ecological events. Since 10 years ago, international workcamps have contributed to the renovation and management of the site. This allows youths from 4 neighbouring towns and international volunteers alike to meet and work together to transform the area. Furthermore, a beekeeping organisation and amateur winegrowers will also participate in giving the Pinson Redoubt a second life.

Work: The meetup between volunteers and the local youth is one of the main objectives of the project. This year, you will participate in continuing existing work alongside local town youths.

- Restoring part of an original outer wall. (Removing vegetation and rebuilding the top of the wall, using simple stone masonry work to build a cover for the top to prevent further damage.
- Cleaning up and removing vegetation from two former firing lines (where cannons used to be) to install convivial areas for locals to gather around and enjoy the view.
- Renovating wooden stairs which allow people going for walks to explore freely in the hills around the site.
- Restoring original metal grills, which protect the entrances and the windows of rooms and stone corridors, some of which were dug on the redoubt itself.

During the project you will work alongside neighbouring town youths., as well as share meals and organise leisure activities with them. Plenty of opportunities to make

Accommodation and food: You will sleep on inflatable mattresses in dormitories in a leisure centre. You will need to bring a sleeping bag. Food will be provided and cooked in turns by mixed teams of volunteers and local young people. One kitchen is located at the leisure centre and another kitchen for lunches is located in the fort. Showers are available in the leisure centre.

Location: The fort is located at the top of a small hill in the middle of a 110 hectare regional park, near some urban areas. The town of Montmagny is located 15 km North of Paris.

Leisure activities: During the workcamp you will be able to take part in cultural outings and social exchanges organised with local partner associations in order to create more connections between international volunteers and local young people. Other free-time activities can be organised collectively, depending on the wishes of the group and the available budget.

The discovery of an abandoned village

13-28/08

Project: Join us in the heart of the provençale Baronnies, in a stunning setting surrounded by mountains at the site of the abandoned village Saint Cyrice ! A 12th century church is all that remains of this village, and enthusiasts have taken on the job of restoring and showcasing it. Situated at the top of a hill, the view from the church is magnificent.

The principal aims of this workcamp is to upgrade the former main road of the village, to remove the original stone floor located in the square of the church, and to create a supporting wall at the entrance of the site. These works will enhance this site which is frequented by tourists.

In addition to the restoration of local heritage, this operation made it possible to (re) demonstrate to elected officials and inhabitants the interests and challenges of this technique for the restoration and creation of structures: management of runoff water, creation of a biodiversity zone, use of local resources, performance in terms of longevity, assets in the context of landscaping and enhancement of natural sites, interest in the tourism enhancement of certain sites, etc.

Work: These last two years, this site welcomed multiple workcamps : a 2 week long international workcamp and a workcamp open to residents. These workcamps were tasked with 3 different jobs : the removal of the former village's main road, the creation of a stone wall at the entrance of the site, and the removal of the dry-stone floor located in the church's square. This first year allowed the issues related to dry-stone as well as the site to be highlighted in front of elected officials, residents, and tourists. This year, we will continue the work undertaken last year and will be supervised by a professional in dry-stone masonry. A day's work is expected to last 6 hours, and the organisation of the days will be discussed and decided on by the group of participants. This workcamp is a good opportunity to discover a traditional construction technique whose only required materials are stones cleared from fields intended for agriculture, or those that are recovered from former buildings.

Accommodation and food: we will be living at the « Les Catoyes » campsite in tents, a dozen kilometers away from the workcamp site. A facilitating team will be present to help with the organisation of collective life during the two weeks of the camp : planning housekeeping tasks, developing menus and preparing meals alternately, organizing recreational activities and outings etc. The purchase of local products will be prioritized, and everyone will come with their own ideas, talents, and tips and tricks to help prepare meals.

Location: Etoile Saint Cyrice is located in the South of France, between the Alps and Haute Provence (40km from Sisteron). It is close to the village Orpierre, a hot-spot for rockclimbing that has many shops and that also organises festivities during the summer period.

The real story behind Arzeliers' castle

5-18/09

Project: At the gates of the provençale Baronnie, the site of Arzeliers lies perched on a small mountain where one can marvel at a beautiful view of the Durance valley. This former village that today is in ruins is the birthplace of the Laragne commune. There, we can still find the remnants of a chapel as well as the ruins of several homes. For some years now, the commune of Laragne has mobilized to bring the ruins of the Arzeliers castle, a witness to the rich past of these communities, back to life by upgrading and maintaining it. Since 2013, international workcamps of young volunteers have been organized for this purpose.

Work: Do you want to learn ancient masonry techniques? How to use ancient and ecological materials? This year, we will continue to work on protecting former homes in close proximity to the castle. With the aim of preserving this heritage and its remains, we will use the same materials used at the time, namely, plaster. We will collect the gypsum on site, and cook it (thanks to an oven built on location), in order to reuse it in the masonry. All of this will be accomplished with the help of a technical supervisor who will be there to share their knowledge! Warning, this will tone up your arms! You'll work for 30h a week. We will use a scaffold at times for work at heights. Evenings and weekends are free for activities the you will choose to organise together.

On the campgrounds, we have access to amenities like sanitary facilities, a barbecue, a pool, a bocce ball court, a bar, a restaurant, and WIFI. We will install a large kitchen tent in order to prepare our meals. We'll take turns cooking, that way we'll be able to taste a number of different specialties ! Here, we pay attention to what we eat, and to reduce our impact on the planet, we try to eat a maximum of local products and we limit eating meat to twice a week. Biodiversity by the lake

10/09-01/10

Project: Forget bubbling cauldrons and magic wands, the witches we're dealing with here are a much realer and more dangerous threat, that of an invasive plant species known as the "witch's claws". This workcamp will take place in Leucate, a "Natura 2000" area, that is an area recognized and protected by the European Union for the quality and uniqueness of its environment. For many years now, the city and the syndicate "Rivage", in charge of the preservation of this environment, have organized an international workcamp at the end of the summer to participate in the protection of the area.

With this project, you will be actively working for the Sustainable Development Goal n°11 from the United Nations: Sustainable cities and communities.

Work: The participants will continue the work accomplished in previous years to fight against this invasive species. This plant grows on sandy soil, and is covering the space needed by migrating birds to nest. In order for these protected species of birds to be able to nest in their traditional environment, participants will support this struggle for a more sustainable environment.

Accommodation and food: You'll live in a guesthouse in Saint-Laurent de la Salanque, and transportation will be provided to reach the work area around Leucate's pond. Food will be provided, and meals will be prepared in turns by the participants.

Location: Leucate.

Leisure activities: This project will take place in a seaside area popular with tourists during the summer holidays. At the time of the workcamp however, most of the tourists will have already left and volunteers will be free to enjoy the numerous activities available without being overcrowded. Additionally, the local partner association is excellent at proposing various activities that will immerse you in the local culture and heritage, most notably local cuisine! Participants will also be engaged in the organization and the celebration of a local cultural and ecological festival.

History of the Atlantic coast 2

27/09 - 18/10

Project: Aix is a small pedestrian island located in the Atlantic ocean. Marked by a strong maritime past, it contains lots of historical places, especially Liedot Fort, built by Vauban and classified as historical monument. Close partner of Solidarités Jeunesses, Aix Island has hosted international workcamps for several years.

Work: This year, you'll work on the large west stone shooting site restoration, right across Liédot Fort. You'll de-vegetate the site in order to start traditional masonry work on rubble stone walls. You'll also replace the stones, to jut in and join with hydraulic lime.

Accommodation: Dorms (4 beds), at the Armand Fallières accommodation center, near Liedot Fort. Food provided, meals prepared by you.

Leisure activities: What a panel of activities you'll have this year in Aix Island! You'll be able to experience some water activities, like fishing or sailing. During your free time, you'll have the opportunity to interact with locals, already excited about meeting you. Finally, you'll have time to discover the beach, go on bike rides along the ocean, play beach-volleyball, and participate in many other activities. You'll also be able to visit cities like La Rochelle and Rochefort.
