

2ND LEARNING EVENT IN BOLOGNA, ITALY

About the project:

Self Employed Entrepreneurs Meet, Exchange, Get Results & Organise Work - SEE ME GR&OW is an Erasmus+ Strategic Partnership for the exchange of good practices. This project has the aim to up-skill youth workers and those who are already self-employed, and freelancers, and provide sound business advice to improve their soft skills, management skills and their future prospects for creating a sustainable entrepreneurial practice.

Target group:

The strategic partnership is dedicated to youth workers, young entrepreneurs and the self – employed, people who live in rural areas, farmers, plumbers, electricians, car mechanics, artists etc.

Until now:

1st Learning Event in July 2021 in Cyprus 20 participants from Greece, Italy, Cyprus, Slovakia and Portugal for a 5 days training course, where the participants developed an entrepreneurial mindset and culture, identified and exploit networking opportunities for business development and cultivated the necessary soft skills.

During the 1st Online learning event in November 2021, the same participants met again and discussed the follow up process of their business ideas, practices they have implemented and steps they need to reach.

Next:

2nd Learning Event in February 2022 in Italy, will gather 20 participants for a 4 days training course. The goals of this learning event are: combating discrimination, inequality and other forms of exploitation in the workplace; learning, through sharing of practices, regulations and realities in other countries; equipping youth workers and youth self-employed with the basic concept and skills of advocacy to be able to create their own interventions.

2nd Online learning event in March 2022, will gather the same 20 participants, where they will get the chance to meet again and update each other on their learning process and implementation of their practices/business ideas and receive support and suggestions from experienced facilitators.
