“

Through this project we target to improve the level of awareness of young people, including marginalised youth, on the harmful consequences of problem gambling, and to promote educational methodologies based on non- formal education to prevent them from mental addiction of gambling.

Furthermore, since this specific youth exchange is a follow up activity of 'the KA2 project BET YOUR LIFE', its results will be used & exploited.

ALTERNATIVE INTERACTION

The virtual exchange will include user friendly tools to create an immersive experience.

MAIN OBJECTIVES

- Improve the level of awareness of young people and marginalized youth on the harmful consequences of gambling.
- Prevent addiction on all types of gambling.
- To understand the impact and consequences of problem gambling.
- To explore attitudes to gambling and risk, and be able to recognise problematic signs (red flags) in themselves or others.
- To increase and deepen awareness of the gambling reality in our own country and learn about the realities in the participating countries.
- Understand the role and influence of advertising and find new and effective ways for problematic gambling intervention/workshops for young people to develop socially responsible messages around the topic.

- To improve digital skills & creativity by developing a video campaign during the 'Conducting Intervention' workshop.
- To develop active participation, social and civic responsibility and the competence of empathy as a skill by exploring NFE methods and techniques.
- To provide participants with a deepened self-knowledge and develop their communication in English, as well as, in their mother language.

BOOST . EMPOWER & TEACH ABOUT GAMBLING

WHY is it important?

When it comes to gambling, we're all equal. Regardless of where you live, the games you play or the amount you wager, we're all battling against the odds when we ante-up live or online.

There is arguably no industry in the world today that can match the sheer growth and drive of online gambling. Across the globe, innovation is taking hold, with more brands than ever competing for player attention and more people laying down wagers as a result.
