MAIN MISSIONS – TASKS

CRIJ or Centre Régional Information Jeunesse is a public service mission, defined and certified by the State. It supports and promotes the engagement of young people. The primary mission of CRIJ is to inform young people about all the subjects which concern them, such as studies, professions, employment, rights, daily life, and all possibilities to go abroad.

Other missions include :

- welcoming and informing the public
- serving as a source of information on any topic
- producing and distributing regional documentation (guides and brochures, educational tools: exhibitions, games, information monitoring tools and other additional resources)
- providing continuing training for the staff of the Youth Information network
- organizing group reception and educational activities by appointment (animation targeted on a theme according to the needs of the public and the demand of professionals)

Our project is available for 2 volunteers.

You will work 30h per week.

Both volunteers will have a common mission, namely:

- Inform young people about your volunteering experience and the different volunteering opportunities through the participation in various informative events.
- Create educational animation tools that help to inform young people about international mobility (exhibitions, games, etc.).
- Organise and participate in fun activities that help to raise awareness on interculturality and that contribute to the learning of foreign languages.
- You will have free time to develop any kind of project that you want.

Moreover, each volunteer will have a specific mission:

Mission 1: for one volunteer

Organise and participate in activities and events promoting scientific culture with the environmental museum of Orléans.

Mission 2: for another volunteer

Organise workshops around European activities and events that promote European citizenship.
